Meart - The semi Living Artist
Drawing Portraits

Meart is a bio-cybernetic geographically detached artist. Its brain is housed in the Futter lab (Atlanta) and its body (Drawing Arm) is located in New York. The project explores epistemological, ethical and aesthetic issues concerning the use of living neurons for ethno-centric end.